

COMMEMORATING THE CENTEN-
NIAL BIRTHDAY OF FIRST LADY
NANCY REAGAN

HON. MIKE GARCIA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, July 2, 2021

Mr. GARCIA of California. Madam Speaker, I rise today, joined by my colleagues, Rep. MCCARTHY, Rep. CALVERT, Rep. ISSA, Rep. NUNES, Rep. MCCLINTOCK, Rep. LAMALFA, Rep. VALADAO, and Rep. OBERNOLTE to commemorate the birthday of one of our Nation's greatest First Ladies and a true American patriot. 100 years ago, on July 6th, Nancy Reagan was born. Throughout her lifetime she served in many roles—from movie star to loving mother, from First Lady of both California and the United States to distinguished philanthropist. No matter her position, she fulfilled her duties with grace, elegance, and above all: class.

As First Lady of California, Nancy became involved with important charitable work, including visiting Vietnam war veterans, homes for the elderly, and schools for physically and emotionally handicapped children. She participated in events raising awareness about prisoners of war and service members missing in action. She also promoted the Foster Grandparent Program, a volunteer opportunity for older Americans to mentor, guide, and care for children with exceptional needs. This program continues to make important contributions to this day.

As First Lady during President Reagan's two terms, she spearheaded the re-beautification of the White House, restoring it to its rightful former glory. She also led the charge on educating our Nation's youth on the dangers of drug use and addiction, teaching a generation of children and young adults to "Just Say No." In 1985, she hosted First Ladies from across the world for a briefing in Washington and Atlanta on the topic of drug abuse and what can be done to help those who are suffering from it. Her drive to educate young people about the dangers of illicit drugs demonstrates her commitment to the future of our Nation.

After her time in the White House, Nancy had a profound impact in our own communities through her support of the Reagan Library in Simi Valley. It was through her guidance and influence that the Reagan Library became one of the most esteemed centers for learning and presidential scholarships in the country. She also continued the push to educate people on the perils of substance abuse and established the Nancy Reagan Foundation and the Nancy Reagan Afterschool Program to support this mission.

After President Reagan passed away, she became a leading advocate for individuals suffering from Alzheimer's Disease and their caregivers. Nancy worked with the National Alzheimer's Association and its affiliate, the Ronald and Nancy Reagan Research Institute in Chicago, Illinois, to find a cure or treatment for this terrible disease that plagues so many in our country. She courageously continued President Reagan's legacy in serving our country until her death in 2016. She is buried on the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library grounds next to her husband.

On the centennial of her birth, we commend Mrs. Reagan for her service to our communities, the State of California, and the United States of America.

SMITHVILLE FIDDLERS' JAM-
BOREE AND CRAFTS FESTIVAL
50TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. JOHN W. ROSE

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, July 2, 2021

Mr. ROSE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the 50th Anniversary of the Smithville Fiddlers' Jamboree and Crafts Festival, also known as the Official Festival of the State of Tennessee, located in Smithville, Tennessee. The Smithville Fiddlers' Jamboree and Crafts Festival is dedicated to the furtherance and preservation of old-time Appalachian country music, dance, and authentic Appalachian art and culture.

In 1972, Congressman Joe L. Evins, a Smithville native, conceived a gathering of a group of area musicians to stage an old-time Appalachian country music show in Smithville, Tennessee, and suggested the same to Barry C. Williams. Congressman Evins and Barry C. Williams, along with J.G. "Bobo" Driver, Charles Gentry, Ralph Vaughn, Neil Dudney, and Linda Pack formed a committee to organize such an event. On July 1, 1972, 714 musicians representing 16 states entertained an audience of 8,000 people.

Now, 50 years later, this exemplary event has grown to the point that it is now estimated that 40,000 people attended the two-day event in 2019, with over 250 contestants. The long and fruitful history of the Jamboree is a culmination of multiple cultural and historical threads that, woven together over time, have situated the festival as a staple of local heritage and is representative of tireless community engagement.

Madam Speaker, I want to thank the Smithville Fiddlers' Jamboree and Crafts Festival organizers, committees, volunteers and the people of Smithville and DeKalb County, Tennessee, for their tireless work to make this event an overwhelming success. Tennesseans take great pride in institutions and events that seek to make the community a better place to live, and I am honored to recognize the Smithville Jamboree as one of these events. Therefore, I would like my colleagues to join me in honoring and commending the Smithville Fiddlers' Jamboree and Crafts Festival for 50 years of tribute to Appalachian art and culture.

RECOGNIZING MEMBERS OF THE
OHIO NATIONAL GUARD WHO ARE SERVING TOLEDO
FOODBANKS

HON. MARCY KAPTUR

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, July 2, 2021

Ms. KAPTUR. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize our fine men and women from the Ohio National Guard who have risen to a challenge on the home front as our communities wrestle with the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic. When our local foodbanks began to see increases in people needing food to feed themselves and their families, even as the pandemic imposed restrictions on staff and volunteers to help, we were able to work with the Ohio National Guard to send units to help distribute food to our neighbors. This food has been a lifeline to those served, who through no fault of their own, were left jobless, without funds, unsure of the future, and hungry.

Truly, the Ohio National Guard lives up to its motto, "Always ready! Always there!" and we cannot thank them enough for their compassionate and brave service.
